Deadline for Nominations: November 13, 2009

The Southern New Jersey Chapter of the National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc., a national non-profit organization, proudly announce a call for nominations for the 2010 Candace Women of Achievement Awards. This award recognizes distinguished women of minority descent whose contributions to society mirror our mission in the areas of issues of importance to minorities as they relate to Health, Education, Economic Development, Arts and Culture, Community Service, Spiritual Leader, Civic Awareness, Corporate-Glass Ceiling Executive and Science & Technology.

While the nominee is not required to reside in Southern New Jersey to qualify for the award, their contributions must have a positive impact upon minorities residing in the southern region. The nominee must agree to be nominated and be willing to attend the award ceremony.

Beginning this year, we would like to recognize a South Jersey youth, ages 14-18, who has made a significant impact on her community and excelled as a leader, mentor and entrepreneur. These attributes support NCBW's goal, which is to develop socially conscious leaders throughout our various communities. We believe our youth are not recognized enough and this kind of exposure will encourage more youth to go above and beyond anyone's expectations.

Our selection committee will review all nominations and select the individuals whom we believe meet the highest standard in their area of accomplishment. Honorees will be recognized at our Candace Award Luncheon Ceremony on Saturday, March 27, 2010 (Save this Date) at Auletto Catering, Almonesson, NJ 08096.

If you know an individual who meets the criteria for an award, and wish to nominate them, please complete the attached nomination form and return it to the address below by November, 13 2009. We look forward to hearing from you.
