Dear Guidance Counselor/Director:

The National Coalition of 100 Black Women - Southern New Jersey Chapter is seeking female minority candidates for scholarship awards.

NC100BW's Education mission includes encouraging minority females to achieve academically, to pursue higher education, and to give back to their respective communities. Serious about our efforts to assist young women in attaining their academic goals, NCBW-SNJ Chapter has awarded scholarships to over 60 young women.

We are interested in potential candidates who have demonstrated a commitment to service in school and/or their communities, as well as a commitment to academic achievement. Candidates must be able to document a minimum of 50 service hours within one year of the application date. Selected students will receive a minimum $500.00 scholarship.

We appreciate your recommendations of eligible seniors. Applications detailing the complete award criteria are enclosed for your review. Please make copies and distribute to eligible students. The application may be duplicated as needed; however, only those with your signature will be accepted for consideration. APPLICATIONS MUST BE POSTMARKED BY SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2010.

Guidance counselors and selected students will receive notification by March 15, 2010, and students will be honored at NC100BW's annual awards luncheon, to be held on March 27, 2010 at Auletto Caterers. Your assistance is greatly appreciated!

Sincerely,
Scholarship Committee
